

Minutes of the Kanab City Heritage and Historic Preservation Board Meeting

Monday, January 9, 2023

Kanab City Office, 26 N 100 E, Kanab UT 84741

Mace opened the meeting at 5:34 pm.

Present were:

Susan Honey

Connie Zweifel

Joyce Bush

Mace Glazier

Emily Bentley (Kanab City Museums Director)

Kent Burggraaf (Kanab City Attorney)

Chris Heaton (Kanab City Council Liaison).

Motion to approve the December 5, 2022, minutes was made by Mace, seconded by Joyce. Motion carried.

Public Comment Session: Claudia Jones asked about the progress of the Heritage Museum. Emily answered "It is coming along."

Open Meetings Act Training: A question-and-answer period followed a video Kent presented on the Open Meetings Act.

Appointments: After a short discussion, the following were appointed:

Chair: Mace Glazier

Vice Chair: Susan Honey

Secretary: Joyce Bush

Proposed monument honoring the all-women city council: Susan shared that the mayor's house was built in 1917 and deeded to Mary Chamberlain in 2018. Those dates indicate no city council meetings were held in the mayor's house. Conversation followed about possible locations for the monument. Susan will do more research and present the proposal at our next meeting.

It was suggested that the Board propose specific language for the resolution the City Council will approve when the proposal goes before the Planning Commission and the City Council. Connie and Susan will work together to draft the language for the resolution.

Other Business: Motion was made by Mace, seconded by Joyce that the Kanab City Heritage and Historic Preservation Board will meet a minimum of quarterly during 2023. The motion carried.

Our next meeting will be Monday, February 6, 2023, at 5:30 pm.

Motion was made by Joyce, seconded by Mace that the meeting adjourn at 6:42 pm. Motion carried.
