

Section 4: ELECTIONS

Section 4-100	Title
Section 4-200	Campaign Finance Disclosure Requirements

Section 4-100

The Code of Revised Ordinances of the city of Kanab as enacted on April 28, 1981, is hereby repealed to allow, pursuant to Utah Code Ann. 20-5-10. for non-partisan elections to be held in the municipality.

Section 4-200 Campaign Finance Disclosure Requirements

General:

All candidates for elective office shall comply with the campaign finance disclosure requirements set forth in this chapter.

Definitions:

The following definitions shall be applicable to this chapter:

"Candidate" shall mean any person who files a declaration of candidacy for a public office of the City; or receives contributions or makes expenditures or consents to another person receiving contributions or making expenditures to bring about such person's nomination or election to public office.

"Contribution" shall mean monetary and non-monetary contributions such as in-kind contributions and contributions of tangible things but shall not include personal services provided without compensation by individuals volunteering their time on behalf of a candidate.

"Expenditure" means any disbursement made by or on behalf of candidate from contributions and receipts, or a purchase, payment, donation, distribution, loan, advance, deposit, gift of money, or anything of values made for political purposes.

Section 4: ELECTIONS

All contributions and expenditures related to the candidate's candidacy should be accounted for between the pre-election and post-election statement.

Penalty For Noncompliance:

Any candidate who fails to comply with the provisions of this chapter is guilty of an infraction.
